Neighborhood Watch:

The Neighborhood Association has $655.00 for Neighborhood Watch signs. A meeting with Officer Taylor will be set up as soon as more money is turned in for Neighborhood Watch Signs. President Pam Kocman has had conversations with Sergeant Taylor and Captain Bravo about vandalism behind Benedict Park and vandalized cars. Both officers stressed the importance of continuing to report acts of vandalism to the Police. President Kocman asked that unused Neighborhood Watch materials be turned back in to Ruth Trustee and thanked her for all of her hard work.

Website:

David Webb, got the neighborhood website up and running, <http://www.eilerheights.org/index.htm>. Meeting agendas, minutes and current events are posted on the website. Please send website updates to Ms. Kocman at eilerheights@hotmail.com and she will forward the information to Mr. Webb to be posted on the internet. Please send photos of your pets to Ruth Trustee to be held for safe keeping should your pets turn up missing.

Neighborhood Identification and Solidarity:

David Webb presented the final design for neighborhood flags and will be placing the first order soon.

Historic Survey:

Historitecture has completed the Eiler's Historic Survey, "Potica, Pints, and Prayers in Old Bojon Town." The premier of the study will take place on Thursday, June 26th, Info Zone at the Rawlings Library. The Neighborhood Association is raising $150.00 for the Song of Pueblo musicians to do the Song of Bojon Town at the Historic Study Premier. The Association is asking individuals to bring appetizers and desserts for the premier. The Neighborhood Association will provide iced tea and the library is providing plates and napkins.

Evrz Fence:

President Pam Kocman will contact Evraz about the failing maintenance of the fence area along Northern Avenue.

Bulletin Board:

The Bulletin Board Revocable Permit, to place the bulletin board in the right of way on the north western corner of Santa Fe and Mesa Avenue will be approved by City Council on May 26th, 2014. Stanley Erjaveck is working on the flowers for the board and they look beautiful. The EPA will be donating money towards the bulletin board.

Do Drop Fundraiser:

Money for the fundraiser should be turned into Donna at the Do-Drop. The fundraiser will continue and all proceeds will be used for the bulletin board.
